OFFICIAL POLICY POSITION

Exemptions From Child Abuse Prosecution

WHEREAS, all children are entitled to equal access to all available health care, and

WHEREAS, all parents shall be held to the same standard of care in providing for their children, and that all parents shall enjoy both equal protection and equal responsibilities under law, regardless of their religious beliefs,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the National District Attorneys Association shall join with other child advocacy organizations to support legislation to repeal exemptions from prosecution for child abuse and neglect.
